Keynote Speaker: Honorable Judge James G. Kube

Judge Kube has served since 2009 as a district court judge for the Seventh Judicial District, which is comprised of Antelope, Cuming, Knox, Madison, Pierce, Stanton, and Wayne Counties. He has been practicing in his field since 1992 and earned his Juris Doctorate degree from the University of Nebraska College of Law. He has served on various Nebraska Supreme Court Committees, such as the District Committee on Inquiry, Council for Discipline Advisory Committee, and Judicial Nominating Commission, Court of Appeals. He is a recognized Nebraska Bar Foundation Fellow Award Winner, which is an honor based on integrity and character. The Foundation recognizes professionals who are dedicated to improving the administration of justice and contribute to charitable and community education works. He has represented individuals through the NSBA's Volunteer Lawyers Project, which provides free or reduced cost legal services for individuals in need. He is married to wife Connie and they have two children. Judge Kube has been a valuable community partner.
